MARIO CHÁVEZ

DATA SCIENTIST

I am a Data scientist who has been learning about IT since 2016. I have a strong interest in big bata, machine learning, deep learning, and Unix operative systems.

EXPERIENCES

First Line Analyst - Banorte/Tecnostaf
Since 2018

At first my duty was trying to restore the function of the blocked ATMs by sending remote commands. Later, due to my knowledge in databases, my role changed to manage the database where the issues were recorded also maker reports about the performance of the department and global status of ATMs. I developed some scripts to optimize the CRUD proceses.
